Mediation Experience

Angela Black Hedegard is highly personable, approachable and with a background ideally suited to the successful resolution of personal and commercial disputes.

Involved in mediations both as a mediator and legal representative since 1998, her experience and expertise includes clinical negligence, personal injury (including abuse claims), professional indemnity, charities, housing and general insurance claims.

Angela has a particular interest in clinical disputes having worked for several years representing clinicians and the NHS, followed by a period acting for victims of medical accidents: she therefore has considerable experience of both sides to the clinical negligence dispute and the legal and practical issues of relevance to each.

As a solicitor, Angela deals with civil actions against the police and local authority claims. Her experience includes residential care, social services, false imprisonment (in custody and mental healthcare institutions) and abuse claims.

Comments on Angela Black’s mediation style include:

“good manner with parties and built rapport well”

“good (gentle) reality testing”

“confident to handle emotional situations”

“perceptive”

“level-headed and calm”

“points made were timely and sound”

Professional Background...

Prior to qualification as a solicitor, Angela was employed by HM Diplomatic Service holding various posts abroad and in London.

Language skills include Spanish (conversational level), Swedish (basic), Danish (basic) and French (basic).

Why choose consensus mediation...?

Our role ensures that...

- Mediators remain wholly impartial and focused on the dispute because we handle all the fee negotiations, contracts, documents and logistics;
- Mediators do not become disqualified from acting (even by perception) because of previous direct or frequent instructions from one party or solicitor;
- Clients and their solicitors can concentrate on the case while we sort out all the administration and logistics.

We quote an inclusive fee for the mediator's time and the administration of the entire mediation process. Consensus Mediation does not charge for "overtime" or for any other hidden extras.
